

Get ready to cheer! Based on the life of legendary Notre Dame football coach, Knute Rockne, "Something in the Game – An All-American Musical" kicks off with all the excitement of a season opener.

Featuring a cast of 23 professional and student actors, this dynamic musical entralls the audience with an inspiring story, high-energy dancing and memorable music.

With book by Buddy Farmer, music by Michael Mahler and lyrics by David H. Bell and Michael Mahler, the show is expertly directed and choreographed by Jefferson Award-winner Bell.

Mention must be made of the outstanding choreography that simply takes your breath away. It is fast-paced, innovative and imaginative. Coupled with the gorgeous costumes by Robert S. Kuhn, the entire production creates an unforgettable visual feast!

For those who've heard the battle cry, "Win one for the Gipper," you'll come away with a new understanding of where this came from.

Mira Temkin

Chicago Theatre and Arts.Com